

SING!

With Westbury Choral

On Wednesday Evenings, 7.30 - 9.30, from September through to April, in the warm and comfortable Westbury Methodist Church.

We enjoy singing a variety of interesting works. Our recent programmes have included Vivaldi's Gloria, Rutter's The Sprig of Thyme and Haydn's Little Organ Mass.

We are very fortunate in having Luke Pickett as our conductor and Stephen Cooke as our accompanist.

Why not come along?

Concerts are held in December and April.

Sue Huntley - Soprano

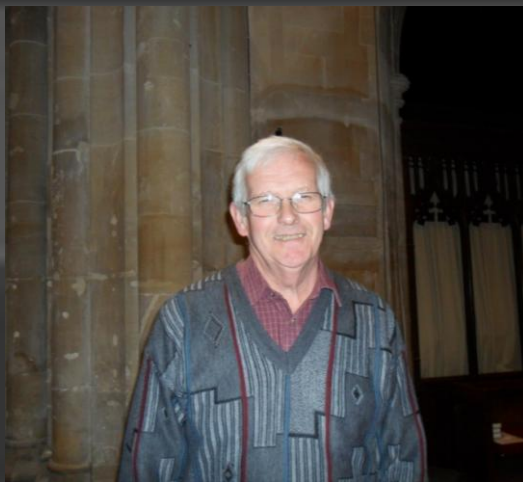

“I find the music we sing, such as Vivaldi’s ‘Gloria’ to be very special.”

Sarah Wiseman - Alto

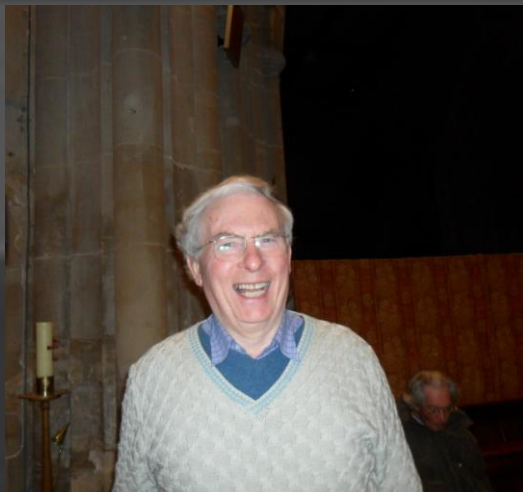

“Our conductor has brought life and vitality to the choir and makes learning music fun.”

Ron Plum - Tenor

“I am looking forward to the Spring concert this year. Westbury Parish Church is a lovely venue.”

Bob White - Bass

“I have sung in a number of choirs over the years, but Westbury Choral is certainly one of the most friendly.”
